Notes from the boss.....

TODAY we set our minds to the FA Cup and look towards taking the first step on the way to what I'm sure we all hope will be a long and successful run.

Every club wants to do well in the Cup competitions, this one in particular. It is important when it comes to generating extra income, but it also does a power of good for a team's confidence.

I will make no predictions about the outcome of today's game, but I will say with some conviction that it'll be a lot harder for us than when we met here in the league three weeks ago. I don't think there'll be a 5-0 drubbing this time.

Chesterfield have a new leader now and I'm sure Paul Hart will have used all his experience to breathe new life into his players. They'll be determined to do well today.

We hold home advantage, though, so it's imperative that we make the most of that and make sure our name is in the hat for the Second Round.

It is also important for us to bounce back with a win after what must have been a very disappointing result for everyone concerned with Bolton Wanderers Football Club last week.

You hold your hands up when you are beaten by a better team but that wasn't the case I'm afraid. Full marks to the lads for coming back and showing a full head of steam in the second half and full marks to the fans for keeping us going right to the end. It was just a pity that we were unable to get within one goal of Bury because if we had I'm sure they would have cracked.

CHESTERFIELD

Since our League meeting three weeks ago Chesterfield have appointed a new player/manager in Paul Hart, the highly experienced central defender who had a distinguished career with Blackpool, Leeds, Notts Forest and Notts County. Mr. Hart is trying to install much needed confidence into the team and recent displays against Bristol Rovers and Chester have produced improved displays even if results have not gone their way.

PEN PICTURES

Previous Clubs: Albion Rovers, Sheffield United, Detroit Express, Washington Diplomats, Chicago Stings, Cardiff City, Kettering Town.

(Scot) Chesterfield's one present international (1 Scottish appearance in 1974) and oldest professional. He is something of a folk hero among the younger fans, everyone's favourite Uncle and still an excellent stopper on his day. A very nice man he drives a sponsored Skoda(!) and is a tireless wearer of sleeveless pull-overs off the pitch. Scorer of one Jennings type ('68 style) goal for Town in 1983 his career has been so varied it took 3 club programmes last year to profile fully. One of only two players whose name is chanted by the fans.

JAMIE HEWITT - Full-back/Midfield: Age 20; League Apps. for CFC: 101 (also total lge. apps.)

(Derbyshire) A one-club man, Jamie was 17 years old as a debutant back in 1985 and played his 100th league game here at Burnden Park three weeks ago. His form has stuttered and started and hasn't been helped by some rough treatment from CFC fans. This is very regrettable as Jaimie is a whole hearted trier and a very good crosser of a football. He is also exceptionally useful in the air going forwards. CFC League goals: 4)

BOB BLOOMER - Midfield/Full-back: Age 22; League Apps. for CFC: 87 (also total lge. apps.)

(Yorkshireman) A first team player since the age of 19 yet Bobby hasn't really nailed down a place in the side. His longest continuous run since 1985-6 has been 14 league games. He is very valuable nonetheless, being very adaptable, very honest and very ruggedly determined. Has arguably played his best games at right back this year making excellent forward runs. After some difficulties with referees, he seems to be maturing now too, happily. (CFC League goals: 4)

PADDY McGEENEY - Midfield/Full-back: Age 22; League Apps. for CFC: 47 (Total Lge. Apps: 66)

Previous Clubs: Sheffield United, Rochdale (loan).

(Yorkshireman) A very popular sprite for his thunderous, fearless tackling and hard work, Paddy could be described as a thinking man's Vinny Jones. Has trod the midfield since his arrival from Sheffield United in 1987 and figured prominently in Town's great last six game performances in April and May. Scored a fine (and his only) goal against Brighton last season too in a 2-2 draw at the Goldstone Ground. (CFC League goals: 1)

STEVE PRINDIVILLE - Left Full-back: Age 19; League Apps. for CFC: 9 (Total Lge. Apps. also)

Previous Club: Leicester City.

(Essex) A new addition to the squad in the summer. Steve has been improving continually since coming into the side in September. Scored a fine left-footed winner from the edge of the box against Gillingham, He is known as 'Prinders' but is a very down to earth and the solitary southerner on the CFC books this season. Likes going forward and an excellent tackler. Signed from Leicester in the summer after 2 first team appearances. (CFC League goals: 1)

DARREN WOOD - Centre Back: Age 20; League Apps. for CFC: 58 (also lge. Apps. total)

(Derbyshire) A Derby born home grown defender and a Saltergate favourite. Broke into the side two years ago but established himself last season at the back with some fine performances. Darren was runner-up in the supporters club's 'Player of the Year' and is easily spotted on the field because he's so loud(!); the most vocal sprite by far. (CFC League goals: 2)

TREVOR SLACK - Centre-back: Age 26; League Apps. for CFC: 9 (Total Lge. Apps: 260)

Previous Clubs: Peterborough Utd., Rotherham, Grimsby, Northampton T., Barnet (loan).

(Cambridgeshire) A Peterborough stalwart for 8 years at the beginning of his career making 202 league appearances, but Trevor has moved around probably too much for his own good in the last two seasons. Started life at Grimsby at the beginning of last season, then finished it at Northampton. Unable to command a place this term CFC picked him up on loan as Tandall's side leaked goals then signed him three weeks later. Known as 'Nuttty' on the terraces. (Total League goals: 19; 0 for CFC)

KEVIN ARNOTT - Midfield: Age 30; League Apps. for CFC: 33 (Total Lge. Apps. 325)

Previous Clubs: Sunderland, Blackburn R. (L), Sheffield U., Blackburn R. (L), Rotherham (L), Sheffield U.

(North-Easterner) Probably the Blue's best performer this season. A genuinely creative midfielder and a superb passer of a football. He arrived last November to prompt a mid-season improvement which took CFC to 14th in the table. He won the game at Port Vale in January with a penalty too. (Total League goals: 33, 1 for CFC)

Burnden Visitors

KEVIN ELEY - Winger/Midfield: Age 20; League Apps. for CFC: 48 (Total Lge. Apps: 61)

Previous Club: Rotherham United.

(Yorkshireman) A diminutive winger who enjoyed a fine middle season spell last winter as he established himself at Saltergate under Kevin Randall. Only 16 when he made his debut for Rotherham in 1985, Kevin is a skilful dribbler and difficult for defenders to cope with when he goes on his spinning, forward runs. (CFC League goals: 2)

ROBERT ALLEYNE - Forward: Age 20; League Apps. for CFC: 22 (Total Lge. Apps: 28)

Previous Clubs: Leicester City, Wrexham (loan)

(Midlander) Rob made a spectacular début against York in March last season, making a superb Dave Waller goal then scoring the winner himself. He also notched the winner at Wigan at a desperate time for the Blues. (CFC League goals: 5)

ANDY MORRIS - Forward: Age 20; Total League Apps. for CFC: 24 (Total Lge. Apps: 31)

Previous Club: Rotherham United.

(Yorkshireman) He finished last season in the side that won four of its last six games, has been an ever present this season. His heading has improved dramatically, causing plenty of problems for opposing defences. Notched a fine header at Southend as one of four league and cup goals this season. (League goals: 4)

DAVE WALLER - Goalscorer: Age 24; Total League Apps. for CFC: 43 (Total Lge. Apps. 222)

(Mancunian) CFC fans had to wait to see the man who saved the club from relegation last season as he arrived in March 1987 injured and failed to play before August. He cost £3,000 from Shrewsbury, a bargain considering his 22 goals last term. (CFC League goals: 20, Total 77)

MATCH REPORT

Saturday, November 13th.

THE THIRD DIMENSION

"We were at sixes and sevens" at one stage" were Bury manager Martin Dobson's words after his side's 4-2 'bogey' win here at Burden. This game of mistakes surely must just have been a one off, being so uncharacteristic of both teams.

Today's visitors travelled to Chester in a bid to change their present bout of fate but faltered again 3-1 but new manager Paul Hart sees progress being made and reckons it won't be long before his team have a change of fortune in a bid to clear bottom spot.

Over* at Bloomfield Road, Blackpool gunned down Aldershot 4-0 after going two up in the first seven minutes.

Leaders Wolves continued their progress this time beating Huddersfield 4-1, striker Steve Bull adding two to his tally so far. This time over 12,000 passed through the turnstiles at Molyneaux, an increase of 2,000 on the previous game. Sheffield United overcame adventurous Fulham by the only goal at Bramhall Lane to keep up their challenge and third placed Port Vale also won at home to Swansea 2-1, all goals coming in a lively first half.

Ex Wanderer Mark Gavin scored a 76th minute winner at Wigan for his new club Bristol City and neighbours Preston will be happy to have shared the 2-2 spoils away at Reading.

AROUND ONE AND TWO

In Division 2, Manchester City's 3-1 home win over leaders Watford gave second placed Blackburn an opportunity to close the gap and they took advantage beating Brighton 2-1 at Ewood park.

Only three points separate the top seven teams here.

In Division 1, a Peter Reid winner secured the points at Charlton in a 2-1 scoreline. A relived Alex Ferguson settled for a point at Derby, 2-2, and Millwall gained a valuable 1-1 draw at Anfield. Leaders Norwich retain top spot despite having to settle for a 1-1 draw at home to Sheffield Wednesday, but in form Arsenal close in winning 1-0 at Newcastle.

BOLTON's local pride went down the drain with two moments of defensive madness in this mistaken-ridden derby. Trailing 1-0 to an Elliott goal, Bolton handed Bury two gifts. On the stroke of half-time, goalkeeper Felgate stunned everyone when he let a Leonard shot slip in. Then, within seconds of the restart, Bolton defenders failed to clear a simple cross and Elliott pounced again.

"That destroyed us" fumed Bolton player-manager Phil Neal. Brown pulled one back, but Bury went 4-1 up through Robinson before Thompson scored another consolation.

Today the passion and tradition of the F.A. Cup 1st Round takes priority over league fixtures. The competition started last September with the minnows' hoping to become a possible 'giant killer' this time. Many have already fallen by the wayside, but Guisborough are still there and paired with neighbours Bury. They are further highlighted by the television cameras which have followed their progress over the weeks. For the benefit of ground safety the tie is being staged at Middlesbrough's Ayresome Park and at the worst will have enjoyed the financial reward gained from the world's most prestigious competition.

BEHIND THE SCENES

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to John and Lesley Thomas on the birth of their son 'Sam' last Saturday. The young Thomas bounced into the world at 4.47 last Saturday afternoon weighing 8 lb. 3 oz.

Letter from Wirral Programme Club to B.W.F.C.

re BBC Children in Need Appeal 1988.

"Dear Sir,

First of all I should like to thank you for your help in our efforts last season to raise money for the above appeal. A total of £221.61 was sent to the fund.

I should be grateful if you could possibly, via your programme, give your supporters news of this seasons efforts to raise funds for this years appeal.

To coincide with the TV/Radio broadcasts with W.P.C. will be issuing a sales list and an offers list where all the money raised will be sent to the fund. Should any of your supporters and/or your club wish to donate any programmes to be added to the lists I should be grateful if they could be sent to me as soon as possible. The programmes can be from any match, any season, any competition. The older/special programmes will be listed via the offers list, all others will be on the sales list. If any supporter would like a copy of the lists could they please send me a large stamped, self addressed envelope. Full details of how to order, make offers etc. will be given on the lists.

Thank you very much.

Yours faithfully,
Ian Runham (Secretary)

Stop in and lock the doors . . . for the next few weeks at least. Why? Dave Felgate has taken to the road in a Volvo, a cool six ton unit pulling along a 40 foot trailer, and it's all part of a course run by the Professional Footballers Association.

P.F.A. Secretary, Gordon Taylor explained, "This is just one of the many courses we operate for players and David will receive assistance from us." David had to undergo a medical first and then it was straight on the road, a steady drive to Abbey Village and back, on his first lesson earlier this week.

Gordon Taylor

Dave Felgate

The 'keeper said, "One's playing career doesn't last for ever and this is something that appealed to me after working at Axford's Timber during the summer, so I decided to give it a go. I found it a bit strange at first working the eight gears and air brakes and you have to consistently use the mirrors."

No doubt the quips will soon be buzzing around the dressing room - Yorkie, Trucker, etc., but David's tutor knows he's in safe hands.

UPDATED INFORMATION ON BURNDEN SPORTS LEAGUE

Sunday Metal Point 7-a-side Football League

Northfield head the table 3 points clear of Heaton Caswals. Heaton had a comfortable 4-0 win over Union Rangers with Jonathan Irwin 3 Brent Richards 1. Fellbridge Victoria gave Northfield a hard game although Nigel Lonsdale gave Northfield the lead mid-way through the first half. The result was always in the balance, until Darren Cooper scored Northfield's second late into the second half to secure three points. Bayern Frenzy kept a clean sheet for the first time this season and gained a point against Horse Shoe F.C. Noel Niclin's goal for Aalco F.C. was enough to beat Lever Athletic. Goals for Paul Griffin and Steve Fellows gave Lane Ends a fine 2-0 win over fancied Morris Green with both teams playing some excellent football.

DAY GONE BY

5 YEARS AGO: 19th November, 1983.

A last gasp goal by Neville Powell denied the Wanderers a victory in the first round of the FA Cup against Tranmere at Prenton Park. Warren Joyce had given Bolton an 11th minute lead before John Aspinall headed Rovers' equalizer. Jeff Chandler put the Wanderers in front from a penalty in the 89th minute but the drama continued with another equalizer.

22nd November, 1983. Bolton eventually qualified for the 2nd round of the FA Cup but extra time was needed to defeat Tranmere 4-1 at Burnden. Mark Allen had given Rovers an early lead before Jeff Chandler equalized just before half time. Simon Rudge, Tony Caldwell and a Jeff Chandler penalty secured the win during the extra period.

10 YEARS AGO: 18th November, 1978.

The Wanderers went down to a 1-0 defeat at the hands of West Brom in the Burnden Park mud. The Midlands winning goal came in the 82nd minute when Ally Brown raced in to convert a Bryan Robson cross.

21st November, 1978. The Wanderers crashed to a 3-0 defeat to Birmingham City at St. Andrews. City, who were at the foot of Division One, hit their goals through Kevin Dillon, Alan Buckley and a Paul Jones own goal.

15 YEARS AGO: 17th November, 1973.

Bolton went down 3-1 at home to a powerful Notts County side who raced into a two goal lead inside 20 minutes through Brian Stubbs and Kevin Randall. Randall made sure of the victory when he hit the third in the 73rd minute whilst Roy Greaves hit Bolton's consolation with 10 minutes remaining.

Sam Allardyce made his league debut for the Wanderers as did Mike McBurney in what was his only appearance.

100 YEARS AGO: 17th November, 1988.

Bolton went down 2-1 to West Brom in the Midlands in a game that saw the referee making an error in timekeeping that he later admitted to when the matter was put before the league. Both sides had agreed to play 40 minutes each way but the ref allowed 48 to be played in the first half with the Wanderers kicking against a strong wind.

The same day the Reserves contested the 3rd qualifying round of the FA Cup against Linfield Athletic in Belfast. Despite a rough sea passage Bolton put up a brave first half fight before going down to four second half goals.

HELPING THE GAME

The Football Trust receives £9 million annually from the Spotting-the-Ball competition run by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters and spends it all on projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.

Since 1979 it has been committed to the development of the game at every level and its broad and varying initiatives have ranged from essential safety work at Tottenham to social work at Toxteth; refurbishment at Wembley to repairs at Wellington; closed circuit television at all League clubs to community facilities at Oldham Athletic; transport improvements at Sheffield Wednesday to storm damage in the South East of England; from policing costs at Hull City to an artificial pitch at Hyde United.

1988-89 will see The Football Trust increase its commitment by investing further sums in closed circuit television, transport facilities for supporters and projects to bring Football League clubs closer to their local community.

WARNING

At the beginning of the season more than 110 League grounds in England, Wales and Scotland will be equipped with CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION which has been funded by The Football Trust.

It is there to increase crowd safety and to help the police. Recording facilities enable film and photographs to be taken of disorder, which may subsequently be used in a court of law.

CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION

SAFETY FIRST

Football grounds in England and Wales have reached their highest ever level of safety thanks to the £23,671,425 invested by the Football Grounds Improvement Trust since 1975.

Almost every League club has been assisted with essential safety work and further substantial sums have been spent to enable them to improve facilities. In the past year alone FGIT grants to Football League clubs totalled:

Safety	2,254,723
Improvements	770,561

In addition to its safety programme, FGIT has also allocated £1.5 million to build or improve family and disabled facilities at League grounds during 1988.

RESERVE AND YOUTH NEWS

2nd November, 1988.

Bolton Wanderers Res... 4 v Doncaster Res... 0

The Wanderers' reserves hit top spot in the Central League with another goal display against lowly Doncaster. The 4 goals took the teams record to 22 in 6 games highlighting the entertainment value being served up.

It was youngster Mike Jeffrey, in his first season playing Central League football, who stole the show by hitting a hat trick and also winning his side a penalty kick.

The opening goal came in the 13th minute, Jeff Chandler sending the Rovers 'keeper the wrong way from the penalty spot, after Jeffrey had been tripped on route to goal.

Rovers hit back, with an optimistic swerving shot from Darren Reeves striking the bar, but the Wanderers went further in front two minutes later.

Stuart Storer and Wayne Moran combined on the right hand side to find Jeffrey running in to smash the ball home in spectacular fashion.

The Wanderers went 3-0 up in the 26th minute with centre half Malcolm Jackson twice being involved in a move that culminated with Paul Davies backheeling into Jeffreys path who rifled home from 16 yards.

Jeffrey completed his hat trick in the 74th minute when he confidently took the responsibility of accepting a shooting opportunity himself instead of laying the ball off.

Team: Gray, Brown, O'Brien, Henshaw, Jackson, Crombie, Storer, Moran, Jeffrey, Davies, Chandler. Subs: Neal, Spooner.

The last month has proved to be productive for the clubs Lancashire League side with four victories being recorded in the five games played.

Goals from Paul Hughes and Gary Brown were enough to defeat Liverpool whilst the following week Burnley Reserves were also beaten 2-0.

The other two victories have both been recorded against Stockport County Reserves whilst Manchester City inflicted the only reverse.

SAFE HANS

Well it's F.A. Cup time again, and no doubt about it, this is the one that all players would like to win. It's the one that non-league teams come face to face with clubs out of the Third and Fourth Divisions and at 4.45 today you know there is going to be giant killing. Plenty of managers this week will have been waking up in the middle of the night with 'hot sweats' and no doubt sales of Grecian 2000 will have trebled as managers plan tactics against the blood and sweat of non-league teams.

The thrills and spills of the F.A. Cup always seems to attract larger attendances and if the third round can be reached then hopefully, if lady luck is on your side, a home draw against one of the big boys. For the last two seasons we have done the hard part getting to the third round but were drawn away to both Coventry and Barnsley. Last season's encounters against Burnley and Wrexham were both entertaining and satisfying with victories away from home and even in defeat at Barnsley we matched them all the way and with a bit more rub of the green we could well have seen a different result.

Of course this afternoon it's not going to be easy, but you can do no more than to get drawn at home; the ball is in our court and so it is up to us to make home advantage count. Trevor Morgan, the Wanderers top scorer so far this season will be looking to increase his tally this afternoon and specially as the cup has strong appeal to big Trev who once scored twice to put Third Division Bristol Rovers through the fourth round when they disposed of First Division Leicester City.

It's going to be interesting to see what format the B.B.C. has in covering the cup. At the moment they are covering Guisborough Town who meet neighbours Bury and will continue to follow the team that emerges victorious from that clash. Whether they also decide to show highlights from other selected ties remains to be seen, but I think that would be a good idea.

Come next May when the 'big day' arrives, Wembley will of course be a sell-out, or will it? Just imagine, if cup holders Wimbledon get there again and faced say with First Division rivals Charlton, both teams only have a hard core home support of around 5,000 fans, so would Wembley be full? I just wonder.

On closing this week, it's good to see that overall attendances are up in each of the Four Divisions, showing that football can still attract more people to its grounds. The biggest percentage increase is in the Third Division, showing that quality football and exciting encounters can be found out of the top division.

RECOLLECTIONS

Although the Wanderers recorded a resounding 5-0 victory over Chesterfield three weeks ago, it would be unwise to underestimate our visitors from Derbyshire, as that is exactly what happened in the only other FA Cup tie between the two clubs.

This took place at Burnden at the first round stage, in January 1911. Bolton at the time were top of Division Two unbeaten at home since the start of the season, and had scored 15 goals in their previous 3 home games. Chesterfield on the other hand were lying in mid table in the Midland league having failed to gain re-election to the Football League in 1909.

The attendance was 6193 which produced receipts of £201 12s. 3d. although hundreds of people didn't actually enter the ground until just before kick-off as the area was enveloped in fog.

Once the game commenced it was Chesterfield who held the initiative taking the lead in the 14th minute through a shot from 18 years old coal miner Revill. Bolton at this time were notoriously bad starters and conceding a goal was one thing that was likely to arouse them.

It did have the desired effect, for Bolton pressed Chesterfield back into their own half for long periods, but for no reward. In the 66th minute disaster hit the Wanderers when Revill broke away from Baver-stock to put in a shot from close quarters. Edmondson went down to the ball but it slipped out of his grasp and rebounded off the post and into the net for the visitors' second goal.

The final quarter of an hour was a farce, with neither keeper visible from the half way line due to fog, the game actually ending in semi darkness.

Bolton captain Sam Greenhalgh, had been unwilling to appeal to the referee about the conditions, preferring the thought not to be entertained that his men were showing the white feather. The Wanderers however were victims of a failure to appreciate the strength of their opponents.

The Wanderers then went on to win promotion from Division Two in runners up spot and remained unbeaten in the league at home for the first time in their history.

The two teams for the cup tie in 1911 were:

Bolton: Edmondson, Stott, Baverstock, Marsh, Greenhalgh, Barber, Stokes, Hilton, Hughes, Smith, Vizard.

Chesterfield: Summers, Cuthbert, Strettle, Thacker, Derby, Munday, Mitlar, Revill, Raybould, Bovill, Stevens.

Chesterfield have also made 9 league visits to Burnden winning just once in September 1986, and losing the remainder, conceding 25 goals into the bargain.

NATS DIARY

A REVIEW OF NATS INTERNATIONAL CAREER

12th NOVEMBER, 1952.

No. 10

ENGLAND 5 v WALES 2

The scarlet shirts of Wales decorated Wembley Stadium for the first time in the international Championships in the presence of the Duke of Edinburgh and a crowd of almost 95,000 who had paid a British record of £43,600 to witness the game.

This was England's best team performance in a long time, with the forwards especially, moving wonderfully together to keep the ball flowing smoothly on the ground and along the wings.

England indeed found themselves two goals to the good inside the opening 10 minutes. The first goal was a result of some swift passing which resulted in Finney shooting accurately past Shortt's right hand. Soon after, Froggatt (R) cleverly flicked a corner from Elliott to Lofthouse, he whipped the ball in past a flat footed defence for the second.

Wales hit back with Ford smashing a low shot past Merrick after he had beaten Froggatt (J) to a loose ball.

England then lost Froggatt (J) through injury, hurting his back when leaping to head the ball, and he left the field on a stretcher and apparently out of the match. Yet within 10 minutes he returned switching from centre half to his old position on the left wing, Elliott dropping into the half back line.

Minutes after returning Froggatt hurtled through the air to head home a Finney cross to give his side a comfortable half time lead.

The second half began with Lofthouse continuing to hold the line together magnificently, shooting at every opportunity and often the master of poor Daniel in the air and on the ground.

Bentley smashed in a vicious shot from 20 yards after another Lofthouse - Finney move for England's fourth goal but within seconds Wales pulled one back when a shot from Foulkes rebounded off Smith to Ford who netted easily.

A quarter of an hour from the end Lofthouse unleashed a 25 yard drive that was too strong for Shortt, advanced from his goal, to hold above his head. That was the final stamp on a fine performance.

TEAMS:

England: Merrick (Birmingham), Ramsey (Spurs), Smith (L) (Arsenal), Wright (Wolves)(Capt.), Froggatt (J) (Portsmouth), Dickinson (Portsmouth), Finney (Preston), Froggatt (R) (Sheff. Wed.), Lofthouse (Bolton), Bentley (Chelsea), Elliott (Burnley).

Wales: Shortt (Plymouth), Stiffall (Cardiff), Sherwood (Cardiff), Paul (Manchester City), Daniel (Arsenal), Burgess (Spurs)(Capt.), Foulkes (Newcastle), Davies (Newcastle), Ford (Sunderland), Allchurch (Swansea), Clarke (Manchester City).

WHERE ARE THEY NOW

GARETH WILLIAMS ~ Bolton Wanderers

Gareth Williams was brought to Bolton from Cardiff City in the sixties in a reputed £50,000 transfer. Manager Bill Riddings was looking for a strong, powerful wing half and saw Gareth as being the ideal asset. The blonde defender arrived in style and scored on his debut and went on to make 108 first team appearances, scoring eleven goals. He originated from Wembley but was brought up in Wales and played Rugby before taking up a career in football.

Whilst at Bolton he opened business dealings in fishing tackle and upon leaving Burnden he only moved down the road to Bury's Gigg Lane where he joined up with former Wanderer, Ray Parry then in the twilight of his career and an up and coming Terry McDermott.

On his retirement from football burly Gareth went into Prison Service, on the catering side, and worked for a time at Wormwood Scrubs, and later ran a hotel on the Fylde coast for a few years. But one would have to travel much further nowadays to find Gareth Williams, for he is in Gran Canaria at Puerto Rico, situated on the south side of the island.

There he runs the Winston Churchill - a bar and eating place - where the English food comes highly recommended. Anyone who might be going that far should make for the shopping centre vicinity. He holds the reputation for being the only officially run British bar owner and had to go through the long drawn out 'red tape' to satisfy the authorities before being allowed to open. The Winston Churchill has been open now for around seven months and Gareth prides himself in putting on a first class service for British holidaymakers. He displays all the football results on Saturdays as part of the service for football fans to make the atmosphere 'home from home'.

Fit looking Gareth keeps a constant reminder of his playing days at Bolton, for around the walls are newspaper clippings, mostly from the Bolton Evening News and these no doubt prove an interesting conversation point, apparently for the Spanish and British alike.

But Gareth wouldn't mind displaying a few more soccer souvenirs from Britain to add to his present collection.

He plans to return to England at Christmas for a well earned break but he won't have any accommodation problems for he still has a flat in St. Annes. Wonder if he will take the Mansfield game here at Burnden on 2nd January

Personality Profile.

STUART STORER

Saying Stuart Storer is still on 21 he has certainly 'been about' so to speak playing with no less than six clubs in his short career so far.

Wolverhampton Wanderers were his first club and he joined them straight from school but was only there for around six months before the arrival of Derek Dougan and his regime who had a virtual clear-out and he followed sacked manager Ian Greaves to Mansfield. At Mansfield he served a 12 months YTS before being released but he soon fixed up a trial at Birmingham and was quickly signed by manager Ron Saunders on a 3 year contract. Birmingham at that time were a First Division outfit but Stuart forced himself into first team reckoning and made his debut in a F.A. Cup tie at Plymouth where the Blues came away with a 1-0 victory thanks to a Mick Harford goal. Birmingham were struggling in the league though and Ron Saunders resigned paving the way clear for new manager John Bond to take over. Everybody knows John Bond's a colourful character in football but Stuart says "I thought he was a good manager with good ideas on football", but it was not enough to stave off relegation. Stuart had made his full team debut in the league at Anfield in front of 44,000 fans and although Birmingham needed to win the game 8-0 to have a chance of stopping up, they went down 5-0. He also made his home league debut the week after against Arsenal but again tasted defeat in a 1-0 reverse.

The following season in the Second Division he has a regular in the team up to Christmas when injury intervened, on his return into the team, then came the surprise in his life when Mersey giants Everton moved in for him and Wayne Clarke in a double deal that was the talk of football. Stuart didn't need much persuasion and after meeting Howard Kendall signed on the dotted line. Stuart settled immediately at Goodison and scored 4 goals in 3 reserve outings for the club at the beginning of his spell there. Everton's reserve team was star-studded then and Stuart states "Yes, we had players like Mimms, Pointon, Mountfield, Adams, Sheedy and Wilson, in fact we could have beaten some Division One teams with that side." Stuart got into the first team squad quite a few times but the two subs law hadn't come into force then so he was forced to be the odd one out in a 13 man squad.

When Howard Kendall left and Colin Harvey took over Stuart's chances seemed to go less and when Wigan Ath. moved in for Stuart on a 3 month loan agreement he took the opportunity to taste more league action. Stuart hit top form at Springfield Park and Wigan obviously wanted to sign him. But Everton's asking price was too high so Stuart returned to Goodison and reserve football. It wasn't long though till Phil Neal moved in and brought Stuart, initially on a months loan, to Burnden, and he made his debut for the Whites on Boxing Day up at Hartlepool. A goal on his home debut against Stockport was a dream start and it was only a few days later that teams were agreed with Everton and Stuart was a permanent member of the Bolton set-up. Although a drop from the 1st to 4th Division was not what Stuart really wanted he was confident that promotion would be achieved and he realized the tremendous set-up down here at Bolton was geared to better things.

Although he didn't play at Wrexham last May "the supporters were unbelievable" he adds, and enjoyed every minute of it. Although not too many opportunities have come his way so far this season, he is ready and willing to take his chance, if and when it comes.

When he was asked, on closing, for any high and low spots on his career so far he stated, "Signing for Everton" as his high spot and "playing for Phil Brown's 5-a-side team" as the low spot - tongue in cheek - concluded Stuart.
